

Ten Most Important Values

(What I hope I have taught my children)

1. Remember to put God first.
  - Study, pray, listen, obey, thank, respect, honor, sing, tithe...
2. Family is more important than anything else on earth.
  - Be responsible, respectful, loving, supportive, kind, helpful...
3. Repent frequently.
  - Learn, think, repair, retry, forgive...
4. Uplift others.
  - Encourage, befriend, show compassion, find good...
5. Work and learn diligently.
  - Keep Sabbath, do your best, always learn, do good things, organize, learn music, use courage...
6. Respect the sanctity of life.
  - Respect others; respect self inwardly and outwardly...
7. Be morally clean.
  - Be pure, be modest, be wise in entertainment, language, music...
8. Have integrity.
  - Use truth, honesty, wise choices...
9. Serve others.
  - At home, at church, to neighbors, in community, use talents...
10. Be happy in life and with what you have and who you are.
  - Choose happiness, count blessings, develop abilities, make changes for the better everywhere...

3 John 1:4 "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth."
